This contract is for resident(s) who are opting to buy out the vacant space in their room for an additional fee each semester. The resident(s) will be charged a rate that is equivalent to 75% of the remaining amount owed for that space. This amount is based on room type as well as time remaining in the semester. By signing this contract, all residents involved must agree to the following terms:

- I understand that I am buying out this space for the current semester only, unless otherwise noted. I must reapply to buy out this space for the next semester, if available.
- The cost will be divided equally amongst the remaining roommates, unless otherwise noted.
- If a student does not wish to buyout their space they must keep the vacancy ready for a new roommate to move into the room.
- All parties must be present at time of signature, and it must be done in the main HRE office.
