Living Learning Communities (LLC) & Theme Communities (TC)

Courses attached to LLC/TC(s) often work towards the completion of one’s major

Living alongside other students who share the same academic and/or lifestyle interests

Applying to be in a LLC/TC is an additional separate application

Why you should consider living in a learning living community or theme community

Living in a tight knit community of around 15 students

Increased engagement with faculty and staff at the University of Utah

Students within the same LLC/TC often take the same course(s) and can work together

Applying to be in a LLC/TC is an additional separate application

TC vs. LLC

Students who live in an LLC have a required course that they take with other students in the LLC, while students in a TC do not.

Increased Engagement with Faculty and Staff at the University of Utah

Why you should consider living in a learning living community or theme community

Living in a tight knit community of around 15 students

Increased engagement with faculty and staff at the University of Utah

Applying to be in a LLC/TC is an additional separate application

TC vs. LLC

Students who live in an LLC have a required course that they take with other students in the LLC, while students in a TC do not.